

Market Garden Training Program

A training program in business planning and urban agriculture for Cleveland area residents

Learn how to earn money selling produce from your garden
Learn useful business and entrepreneurial skills
Learn growing methods that create higher yields
Bring healthy produce into Cleveland neighborhoods
Be part of Cleveland's emerging local food market

Come to an information session:

Tuesday, December 11, 2007
6:00-7:00 pm
Carnegie West Library
1900 Fulton Road

Thursday, December 13, 2007
6:00-7:00 pm
Langston Hughes Library
10200 Superior Ave.

To register or request an application call 216-429-8238 or email
taggart.32@osu.edu

Classes begin in January. Applications are due December 28th.

The Market Garden Training Program is a project of Ohio State University Extension, Cuyahoga County.

